1. Introduction

Wyoming LLC Attorney ("we," "us," or "our") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you share with us. This Privacy Policy describes how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your information when you use our website, LLC formation services, and digital asset management platform.

2. Information We Collect

Account Information: Name, email address, password, and other registration details.

LLC Formation Data: Business information, member and manager details, registered agent details, and related identifying information.

Financial Information: Information related to your registration fee, digital asset holdings, and transaction history within our platform.

Automatically Collected Information: IP address, browser type, operating system, referring URLs, pages visited, and other usage data collected through cookies and similar tracking technologies.

3. How We Use Your Information

- To create, maintain, and administer your account and LLC formation
- To process LLC applications and registration fees
- To manage digital asset portfolios and process transactions
- To verify identity and prevent fraud, money laundering, and other illegal activities
- To send notifications regarding your account, LLC status, and transactions
- To respond to your inquiries and provide customer support
- To comply with legal obligations and regulatory requirements
- To enforce our Terms of Service and protect our rights, property, and safety

4. How We Share Your Information

We do not sell, rent, or trade your personal information for marketing purposes. We may share information with trusted service providers, in response to legal requirements, in connection with business transfers, with your consent, or as aggregated or de-identified data.

5. Data Security

We implement reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, including encryption in transit, secure access controls, regular monitoring, and restricted employee access on a need-to-know basis.

6. Cookies and Tracking

We use essential, functional, and analytics cookies to operate our platform and improve your experience. You can manage cookie preferences through your browser settings.

7. Data Retention

We retain your personal information for as long as your account remains active or as needed to provide our services and comply with legal obligations. LLC and financial records may be retained for extended periods in accordance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

8. Your Rights and Choices

Depending on your jurisdiction, you may have the right to access, correct, delete, or port your personal information, opt out of marketing communications, and withdraw consent.

9. International Data Transfers

Your personal information may be stored and processed in the United States or any other country in which we or our service providers maintain facilities.

10. Children's Privacy

Our services are not intended for individuals under the age of 18, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 18.

11. Third-Party Services

Our website may contain links to third-party websites or services that are not operated by us. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third parties.

12. Digital Asset and Blockchain Data

Blockchain transactions are recorded on public ledgers. Wallet addresses, amounts, and timestamps are publicly visible and immutable once confirmed. We cannot delete or modify information recorded on a public blockchain.

13. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of material changes by updating the "Last updated" date and, where appropriate, by additional notice.

14. Contact Us

If you have any questions, concerns, or requests regarding this Privacy Policy, please contact us through the channels listed on our website.
